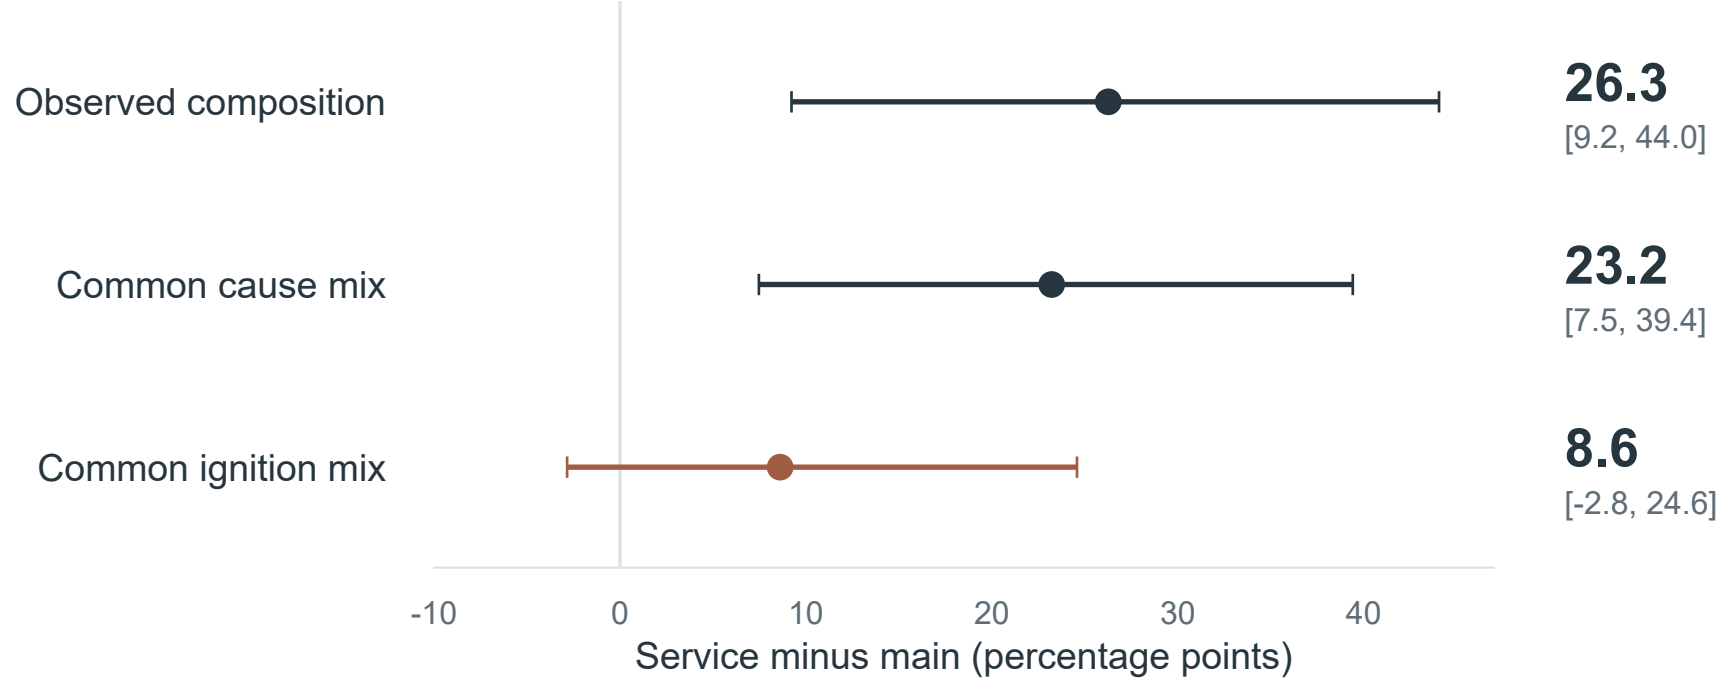
The casualty gap narrows under a common ignition mix

Public property: 45 service-line and 363 main reports. Ignition was recorded in 73.3% and 36.1%, respectively.



Common mix = the pooled proportions of causes or ignition states. Lines show 95% operator-bootstrap intervals.
This is a descriptive comparison of reported incidents. Ignition composition helps explain the component contrast.